

Task Sheets

Appendix 7.3

Recipes For Life

Please note there is some variance in the task sheet based on the differences between the application functionalities.

The researcher will introduce you to both apps. You will then do the tasks laid out in the following sheets for each of the apps and then after doing this task you will fill out a quick questionnaire about your experience using the app and answer some of the researcher's questions to help gain feedback. You are welcome to discuss aspects of the app while going through the tasks but only ask for help with a task if you are really struggling with how to achieve the task.
